"Best Practices For Election of Members to International & Regional Treaty Bodies," Women@TheTable, October 2018

James Anderson is experienced in all forms of private capital arrangements, with a particular focus on the establishment and ongoing operations of asset management structures; portfolio investments in infrastructure, real estate and technology; and compensation for fund principals.

Mr. Anderson also counsels on the full range of public capital markets transactions, including IPOs; issuances of equity-linked, hybrid and warrant instruments; securitisations; SIVs; and other structured debt offerings. He also has advised the governments of various international finance centres on new corporate and tax laws. Recently, his practice has focused on new intersections between private capital, impact capital and technology, particularly in the energy sector and the high-frequency, algorithmic and augmented intelligence trading sectors.

He leads the European tax practice, which was named Best International Tax Team of the Year at the 2019 Tolley's Taxation Awards, as well as Transatlantic Tax Team of the Year by The American Lawyer and Legal Week at the 2018 Transatlantic Legal Awards. The firm has repeatedly been ranked as the Best Law Firm for Tax Law by Vault's law firm rankings and the firm's global tax practice also was named Tax Group of the Year for 2018 and 2019 by Law360. The European tax practice also received three ITR European Awards for 2019 Impact Deals of the Year.

Mr. Anderson is ranked in the first tier for tax by Chambers UK, Chambers Europe and Chambers Global, which also lists Skadden's Tax Group in Band 1 of its Global Tax rankings. In Chambers UK, a client notes: "He is very experienced, knowledgeable, technical, and is the most client-centric professional adviser I have worked with." He has repeatedly been recognised by The Legal 500 in its U.K. Hall of Fame, in addition to being one of the publication's leading 250 international tax advisers worldwide and one of its "leading individuals" amongst the top 40 U.K. corporate tax advisers, who say he is "extremely smart and solutions-oriented." Who's Who Legal has called him an "internationally renowned star" with a "world class" practice. In addition, Mr. Anderson is recognised in World Tax, Legal Experts, PLC Cross-border Tax on Transactions Handbook, Tax Directors Handbook, Lawdragon Insights: Private Funds, and The Best Lawyers in the UK under Tax Law and Investment Funds Law. Mr. Anderson also is listed as a leader in International Tax Review's Tax Controversy Leaders Guide and named in Euromoney/Legal Media Group's Expert Guides' Guide to the World's Leading Tax Lawyers. In 2020, Who's Who Legal included him in its annual Thought Leaders list for Corporate Tax.

Mr. Anderson is a member of the International Fiscal Association (IFA) British Branch committee. He also previously served as U.K. branch reporter for the IFA Global Congress 2013, and co-authored the IFA Branch Report's analysis of the U.K.'s response to base erosion and profit shifting (BEPS), titled "Assessing BEPS: Origins, Standards, and Responses," for the IFA 2017 Congress in Rio de Janeiro. Mr. Anderson chaired the Space Taxation seminar at the IFA Global Congress 2019 in London and has published several articles on this growing area of law.

He also is a member of the HMRC/HMT Consultation Group for the U.K. fund management industry and vice chair of the Tax Committee for AIMA (Alternative Investment Management Association), lobbying for good practice in the taxation of U.K. and cross-border asset management activities. Mr. Anderson sits on various HMRC stakeholder committees, helping to frame relevant legislation in the spheres of derivatives, personal taxation, property taxation and funds.
