

Natalia Quiñones is the International Tax partner with Quiñones Cruz in Bogota, Colombia. Until January, 2020, she was the head of the Office for International Affairs at the Colombian Tax Administration (DIAN). She is a PHD Candidate in Tax Law at Amsterdam University (UvA). JD from Universidad del Rosario, Philosopher (summa cum laude) from Universidad de los Andes, Specialist in Tax Law from Universidad del Rosario, and LLM (Gerard Wallace Scholar) from New York University (NYU). She is a member of the Executive board at the Colombian IFA branch and was the chair of the branch until July 1st, 2020. She teaches international taxation at Universidad de los Andes in Bogota and is a guest lecturer in various settings around the world.